That Tired Feeling
Everybody knows what that tired feeling is. It differs from human weariness in that it is not relieved by rest, but rather increased by it. It is properly a condition of low vitality, and comes from change of season, when the blood is impoverished and impure. The combination of tonic, alterative and blood purifier
Strengthen the System
"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as the most reliable of all Spring medicines. I was tired of many others without good results, until I gave Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial, when I was convinced it was superior to all others. In Spring I take three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and know nothing of the debility and prevalence of disease from which many suffer." MRS. F. M. COUTER, No. 20 Madison St., Boston, Mass.

Purify the Blood
I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for several years in my family, and it has proved to be the best blood purifier I ever used. I have given it to my children for the scrofula, with perfect success. I also used it for Spring Debility, and found it to be just the medicine needed. I have also given it to my husband for Dyspepsia, and it has done him much good. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all. MRS. C. F. SIMMONS, Cohoes, N. Y.

The Republican electors of the several States, and all other citizens who agree in supporting such nominations, who desire to favor the extending and securing American labor, protecting and extending home industries, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, securing the suffrage and an honest counting of ballots, effectively protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who pledge to promote friendly feelings and permanent harmony throughout the land, are requested to select delegates and alternates to said convention as follows, to wit:

The Republican electors in the several States shall have the right to choose their delegates at large, from each Congressional district four delegates, and for each Representative at large, two delegates, to the Convention.

The delegates at large shall be chosen by popular conventions, called on not less than twenty days' public notice, and held not later than the third Tuesday in May next, and at the time fixed for the meeting of the National Convention.

The various Congressional districts shall have the option of electing their delegates at separate popular delegate conventions, called in like manner, and held in the Congressional districts at the time fixed for the election of delegates at large by the State Conventions, or by such other mode of the State Convention as may be adopted by District Conventions; and each State shall be entitled to the same number of delegates to the meeting of the State Conventions. All District delegates shall be present in the office of such District Conventions. Two delegates shall be allowed from each Territory and from the District of Columbia, and they shall be chosen by the Republicans thereof.

Vacancies occurring in the delegations from any State, by reason of contests which shall be decided by the Committee on Credentials of the Convention, or by reason of the refusal of any delegate to serve, may be filled by the State Committee.

WALL STREET

Quiet Once More.

NEW YORK, May 17. The morning has passed quietly on the street and confidence seems to be restored. ... There is not a trace of the excitement of the past three days now visible, and affairs are now progressing in a fair way toward a speedy recovery of values in the stock exchange. The rapid advance of the morning has been fairly well sustained, the upward movement being merely checked at intervals at the usual sales of small holders to secure the profits accruing. ...

The bank statement is quite favorable, showing an excess of reserve of about the legal requirements of over $3,000. The opinion of all the leading financiers, who have been interviewed by the Associated Press representative is that a gradual improvement is certain to ensue, and that there is no danger of another backward step.

Another Failure—Partially Due to the Panic.

C McCulloch, Beecher & Co, merchants at 41 Wall street, filed an assignment today to Henry Paine Bartlett, giving preference to Drexel, Morgan & Co for $75,000 and one to Wm Haskin & Son, of Boston, for $7,728. They were shipping merchants. Beecher is a nephew of Henry Ward Beecher. The firm was at one time agents of the United States and Brazil Mail steamers. Heavy assets are $300,000, and liabilities between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. The suspension was caused by the currency of Brazil having been heavily depressed and a decline in coffee for the last three months. While the panic this week did not cause their suspension, it hastened it.

Saves the Interest

The Bleecker Street Savings Bank paid over in the late run on it almost half a million dollars to 150 depositors. The bank makes at least $5,000 by saving the interest.

Newark Savings Bank.

NEWARK, May 18. It is stated on reliable authority that negotiations are on foot with a strong promise of success for a settlement of all matters in difference between Frelinghuysen & Hatch and the Newark Savings Institution, and that if the negotiations be carried through the firm will shortly resume. The basis of the negotiation is the securing of the entire claim of the bank. If this be done the depositors must receive payment in full.

FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS—First Session.

House.

WASHINGTON, May 17. On motion of Mr Ellis, of Louisiana, the Senate amendments to the Indian Appropriation bill were non-concurred in.

By a previous order of the House this day was set apart for the consideration of bills presented by the Committee on Judiciary, and Mr Tucker, of Virginia, reported from that committee a bill to regulate the effect of judgments and decrees of U S Courts in the several States. House calendar.

Also in memorial of E B Whitbeck praying for an investigation of legal matters involved in the proposed forfeiture of the land grant to the New Orleans, Baton Rouge & Vicksburg Railroad Company. House calendar.

Bills were passed removing the political disabilities of Henry Newman, Wm H Parker and Robert D Lindsay, of Virginia, and Charles W Bates, of Delaware.

The House then went in Committee of the Whole on the Senate bill extending until December 31, 1884 the duration of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims.

Mr Reed of Maine explained that the bill proposed that as soon as the court shall have ascertained that first-class claims can be paid without exhausting the fund which was appropriated by the act of 1882, the court shall at such certificates to the Secretary of the Treasury as will enable him to pay first-class claims.

On motion of Mr Reed an amendment was adopted changing the term of the extension to Dec 31, 1885.

The committee rose and the bill passed. Bills were also passed for the appointment of two additional associate Justices of the Supreme Court of Dakota and amending section 1060, Revised Statutes relating to interest on judgments rendered by the Court of Claims. The latter bill corrects an error in the revision of the statutes by inserting "for" instead "and" and reduces the rate of interest from five to two per cent. Adjourned.

HARBOR GRACE RIOTS

Trial Now in Progress

ST JOHN'S N F, May 17. The Orange-Catholic riot cases were adjourned to-day until Monday. Twenty three Crown witnesses have been examined during the week and ten more arrived to-day. The defence will probably begin Thursday. As there are twenty-three indictments against Riverhead, parties there will be tried singly by different juries. If the Crown fails of conviction on any or all the indictments the Orangemen on sympathizers now in jail will be tried.

THE CHURCHES

Presbyterian Conference

SARATOGA, N Y, May 17. At the morning session of the Presbyterian general assembly the 28th annual report in relation to the aged fund for disabled ministers and widows and orphans of deceased ministers was submitted by the Secretary and adopted. A committee of fifteen was appointed on the matter of insurance for ministers and to report at the next assembly. A resolution deprecating the publication and sale of Sunday papers and desecration of the Sabbath, was debated with great force and finally referred to a committee. The assembly then adjourned until Monday morning.

Methodist Conference

PHILADELPHIA, May 17. At the African Methodist Episcopal conference there was a most decided contest for the election of more bishops, but the effort was defeated.

The power of Dr. Jackson against apostolic succession was endorsed. This was a reflection on Bishop John W Brown whose quadrennial sermon last week was in favor of apostolic succession. There was much warm debate on this subject among the delegates and bishops.

The Committee on Missions reported recommending that Dakota and Montana missions be made an annual conference, part of Idokata north of the 49th parallel be formed into a foreign mission. English and Spanish missions are recommended in New Mexico and evangelizing agents in Roman Catholic portions of the country. Recommendations that missions in Japan, Mexico and Denmark be made annual conferences were adopted.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

A Bust to be Placed in Central Park

BOSTON, May 17. The bust of Wendell Phillips by Joseph Milmore, is not to be presented to Geo Wm Curtis, as has been reported, but it is the intention of the friends of Mr. Phillips to purchase a bust and present it to the Metropolitan Museum in Central Park, New York, to be placed by the side of Charles Sumner.

LABOR TROUBLES

Female Strikers.

NEW HAVEN, May 17. About 50 female employes at S. Candee & Co's Rubber Manufacturing Works in this city struck to-day. They worked in the Arctic, overshoe department, and the strike was caused by the company demanding that they should furnish the same amount of work on 12 pairs that they formerly did on 10. Superintendent Elliott says the trouble arose from a disposition on their part to slight their work.

The Department of State will exhibit samples of cottons, wool and various fibres and of the fabrics made of them in all parts of the world, with statistics of market, styles, selling prices and demand. The salient feature of this department's exhibit will be its illustration of the peaceful and economical work of the diplomatic and consular service.

In addition to the displays named efforts will be made to secure from leading commercial nations model exhibits of their merchant marine in competition with the best shipbuilding of the United States. Appreciating the importance of such exhibitions the management of the exhibition has determined to offer a handsome award to the successful competitor.

The War Department will exhibit models illustrating various works of the engineer corps, such as torpedo models and the method of submarine mining and all outfits and appurtenances of military engineer and field service. The manufacture of guns and metallic cartridges will be illustrated by machinery in operation. The Navy Department will exhibit every variety of ordnance and small arms used in the service and those that have been superseded. All torpedoes used in naval warfare with every kind of projectile will be shown also. The famous dynamo-electric machine for firing models of war vessels, ancient and modern, and samples of all things belonging to the supply department will be exhibited.

The Post Office Department will place a handsomely equipped office in practical operation at the exposition and exhibit a postal railroad car and all appliances of mail service. It will also have a machine in motion making envelopes and stamps.

The Department of the Interior will exhibit a great variety of objects collected by agents of the Indian bureau, illustrative of aboriginal life and customs, and of the gradual progress of the red men from barbarism towards civilization.

The patent office display will consist of groups of models taken from its cases showing chronologically the advances in steam engineering, cotton spinners and other industries, also in the ingenuity of American inventors.

The bureau of education will exhibit a complete set of publications with maps based on statistic atlas of the 10th census showing the distribution of wealth and illiteracy, school furniture, apparatus and text books, the exhibits of chemistry in ... structions from Kindergarten, manuscripts ... handiwork from the pupils in the Indian Manual Labor School. The Smithsonian Institute have exhibits from several divisions of the National Museum. Every variety of fishing tackle used throughout the world from the crudest savage devices to the latest inventions will be exhibited. Photographs of the fishermen pursuing their calling, of their homes, of their manifold methods of preparing the catch for market, of their boats and fishing craft and everything connected with their lives and surroundings will be displayed, together with life figures of the fishermen of all nations clad in costumes. The "Albatross," one of the largest and best equipped steamers of the Fish Commission will be anchored at exposition wharf as an exhibit.

POLITICAL.

Democratic Fraud

BOSTON, May 18. A petition is in circulation for signers among the Democrats of the 12th District asking the State Committee to call a new convention in that district for the choice of delegates to Chicago. The petition recites that while the District Convention recently held was composed of 117 accredited delegates, yet the total number of actual ballots cast was but 133 votes were cast. That all the proceedings were unlawfully held and the petitioners ask representation in the National Convention by delegates on whom the stigma of fraud shall not rest.

PLAYFUL BREEZES.

Buildings and Fences Wrecked.

QUINCY, Ills., May 18. A cyclone struck Melrose township, four miles southwest of this city, this afternoon, wrecking the buildings and fences of several farms. It is feared greater damage was done further east.

NEW TORPEDO BOAT

Some Interesting Experiments

NEW HAVEN, May 17. The commissioners appointed by the Government have watched the experiments made by the inventors of a torpedo and boat of new design, the model and principle of which are believed by the inventors and others to revolutionize the science and use of explosive projectiles. Messrs E D Matthews, E Jewett and W Maynard of Newport, and E. Belknap, of Norfolk, Va., and Lieut. A. R Condon, of Washington were the commissioners appointed and the experiments were made by W W Rawles, of New York. The test was made by placing a target half a mile down the harbor and guided by wires from the shore, the vessel was made to perform evolutions in the air and finally to strike the target. The motive power of the torpedo boat is secured by means of a chemical which when generated exerted an enormous pressure.

The electric wires are connected with the steering apparatus and an operator standing on the shore, or in a sailing vessel, sends a destructive weapon to the very point desired. The torpedo is built of iron 30 feet long and contains 150 pounds of dynamite which in case of concussion such as would be caused by the torpedo striking a vessel it would be discharged. During the experiments the boat was under perfect control and the operator caused it to advance, recede, turn to left or right at pleasure. It is claimed that the steamboat craft afloat would fall an easy prey to its destructive forces when brought to bear against it. The experiments were successful in every particular.

Thursday, while the family of Mr. Orlando Gately, of Portland, were busy in other parts of the house, a sneak thief or burglar entered the front door, passed up stairs to Mr. and Mrs. Gately's chamber, broke off with a pistol watch and chain belonging to Mrs. Gately, and a silver watch belonging to Mr. Gately.

Saturday afternoon, an aged lady named Lynch, in stepping up to the sidewalk on Portland, stumbled and fell, striking on the stepping stone, breaking her hip.

On May 3st, as Freeman Stanley, fireman No. 7, of the Life Saving Station on Isabella Isles, was going to Southwest Harbor in a skiff, he saw a small schooner driven over a point with only a boy in it, helplessly towing alongside, he discovered a young son of Thomas Newman, of Southwest Harbor, clinging to it and rescued him. But for the help of Mr. Stanley, young Newman would doubtless have been drowned.

At a special meeting of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Augusta, the City Marshal was instructed to notify the Bell Telephone Company to immediately remove all telephone poles recently erected on Winthrop street, between Water street and Stevens' Mills, and Mount Pleasant cemetery, and, if the company refused to do so, directed to remove them himself.

Recently, a reception was held by Rev. Charles Moules, pastor of Oak Grove church, Vassalboro. Seventy-five or eighty persons were present. Mr. Jones has a large collecting funds to rebuild the church. There is good prospect that the amount will be considerably increased; the sub-scriptions are coming very liberally.

A large crew of workmen will soon be employed in laying a pipe from the city gas house to the reservoir of the Hallowell Gas Co. It will be laid by the way of Cooper lot as it will be more practicable than over Wind-rop Hill, though a little more distance and more expensive.

The Augusta Journal says: Herbert J. Sewell, the complaint of Hiram Street, the son of the factory foreman for cruelty to animals, was before the Municipal Court, Thursday afternoon, for cruelly whipping and beating a horse. It is alleged that Thursday morning the respondent was driving a horse on the river road, that the animal was balky, refused to go, and lay down, that Mr. Sewell beat the horse cruelly with a cudgel on the nose and other parts of the body. Two of the sticks said to have been used in the beating were exhibited in court. One was beech and the other birch, the latter being about four feet in length. The latter endured was mainly a portion of the bark. The defense was that the horse was in unwise severely beaten and was a very refractory animal; that the team was out at 5 and rested at 8 and could not have been overloaded.

Household Hints.

New York Evening Post:

Port wine jelly, to be given to an invalid, is made by dissolving one heaping spoonful of gelatine in one cupful of cold water, sweeten to suit the taste of the eater, and add a wineglass of wine and the juice of a lemon. Then pour on a pint of boiling water, and strain through a cloth. It may be given hot.

A good plan to vary the manner in which you favor the fore of beef, is to be done by squeezing the juice of half a lemon over it and putting the whole in the roast. Another way is to cut a carrot, one small onion, and a little parsley in the dripping pan and lay the roast over it. Do not be led by any half-informed person to put one drop of water into your dripping pan and you have tried the experiment of roasting beef in this way it makes a striking difference in the flavor of the meat. The outside browns over quicker, the juices is all kept within, and the meat is tender in consequence of this.

Very sallow oranges and nuts, take one cup of sugar, the cup of water, and the juice of one lemon. Let this boil until the syrup, when dropped from a spoon, looks like thin white hairs, and is brittle. Then dip small pieces of orange into the syrup, and lay them on buttered plates to dry. The hole meats of English walnuts are very nice stalized in this way.

An appetizing breakfast may have for its chief attraction a tender chicken browned in cream. Parboil the chicken, and when the joints—the toughest part of any fowl—can be pierced with a broom straw without effort, take out of the kettle; drain it well. Put the pint of cream into a large frying-pan; let it become hot, then lay the chicken into the cream; let it stand first be cut in pieces if you intended to fricassee it. Let it cook the cream until it is all of a rich brown; then pour the cream out into a small scrapan, put a lump of butter in with the chicken; after it melts, turn the chicken over, so that it will be browned on both sides alike. Thicken the cream with a little flour, and serve as gravy in a bowl, or after putting the chicken on a platter, pour the cream over it. Mashed potatoes and hot rolls with coffee, will accompany this to the table.

Use cakes of cookies are made of the ites of two eggs, one large cup of k, one cup of sugar, half a cup of ter, two scant teaspoonfuls of baking water, flavor with rose, use flour to make a thick batter; butter a pan, put this batter into them until they are half full. Bake in a quick oven, while they are hot; before you take them from the tins, dust powdered sugar over them.

A very nice way to cook veal cutlets is to dip them into a well beaten egg, then over them with fine cracker crumbs; put some butter and lard in the frying-pan, and cook the cutlets slowly in it, season with pepper and salt, and serve with currant, catsup, or jelly.

Another excellent way to cook veal is to cut out into pieces that are the right size to serve on the plate, fry them in butter, then dust flour over them from a sifter, and put hot water enough in the frying-pan to cover the meat, let it cook very slowly, season highly with pepper and salt. In half an hour, take the meat out, put it on a hot platter, thicken the gravy, adding butter, cayenne pepper, and the yolks of two eggs; pour this over the meat, and send it steaming to the table.

Mock cream pie is made by beating half a cup of butter until it is foamy, then add two-thirds of a cup of sugar, the yolks of three eggs, well beaten, flavor with lemon or vanilla. Make a crust for the bottom of the pie; fill and bake in a quick oven. When done make a meringue of the whites of the eggs and two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar. Brown delicately, and set to the table while hot.

DR. SCHLIEMANN,

in his excavations at Troy, N. Y., in search of some suspender buttons that Homer is supposed to have dropped there in one of his many flights, came across some ancient jewelry, that was in perfect as the day it left the Trojan jeweler's shop. It was made by the doctor and one piece examined, and to it proved to be only 18 K fine. People that think the jewelers of old used better stock than those of to-day, can draw their own inference from the above. If any one feels ourwork in any to come in excavations at St. Paul, they will find it to say just as it is stamped. Solid gold jewelry to order, perfect as to workmanship, and as questionable as to quality.
